Instructions:

- This week, the challenge is based on the game ‘Battleships.’
- To create your game board, get creative and recycle some cereal boxes or simply use a pen and paper.
- Shade in the boxes to select the position you want for your battleships (an example of how to do this is done for you).
- Take turns to choose a position on your opponent’s game board (for example: A1 or F6).
- If you manage to hit one of your opponent’s battleships, they must complete ten star jumps.
- If you miss one of your opponent’s battleships, you must complete ten star jumps.
- The person who sinks all of their opponent’s battleships first wins.

Extra Challenges:

1. Change the movements that you or your opponent must complete when a battleship has been hit.
